Thank you for your comprehensive weather reports. I live in Glen, NH and get a better weather report (especially radar) from you folks than the NH news station in Manchester (wmur). It's nice to have a local person that knows what is going on. Keep up the good work and please don't forget us here in Barlett/Glen.

Subject Steak & Burger Recap

Dear Board Members,

Super evening (well, maybe except the weather) and super event for the Club last night! With your active support, we were able to host a very successful 10th Annual Steak & Burger Dinner.

Kudos and thanks galore to pass along, starting with:

- Our Chair, Jim Costello, Jr. – for providing the leadership and energy to ensure success, including working that prospect spreadsheet and making the asks. Great event coverage by the Sun Journal (see front page of Sports Section today)!
- Our Food Chair – and Chef – Mike Labbe – who gets the “It never rains in Southern Auburn” cooking survival award.
- Joe Keaney – for making the arrangements with TD Banknorth to get us Rico Petrocelli – one of the very best speakers on a distinguished honor roll of guests over the years.
- Carol Sabasteanski – For the sponsorship through FISC, the help of her assistant Keri at the front desk, and that new toy that Carol was snapping pictures with – can’t wait to see them.
- Our President, John Geismar, who with his family, came back for the evening from vacation to anchor the Bonneau & Geismar table – and handle the opening and closing duties with his usual fine style!
- Pat Finnigan – our Vice President, who found time in the midst of her City Manager

- duties, to help out, get a table – and be our Auction top bidder!
- Speaking of Auction, Gerry Belanger really “worked the crowd” (Joe, Pat and that Rotarian) in getting the bid up – but thanks as well for so many of the gifts that went into the raffle.
 - Celeste Yakawonis – for making calls, getting baseballs, Gift Baskets by the wall – doing it all (it vaguely rhymes)
 - Ken Bauder – for lining up our favorite emcee in the world, Norm Karkos!
 - Dick Gleason – for his active support, including day of event promotion, and a taped interview with Rico!
 - Diane Marquis Monaghan – for helping with the set up and decorations, including procuring the helium tank for the SOCHS balloons – and for working so well with the kids!
 - Thanks as well to Roy Hibyan, Tony Joaquin, Gerry Dennison, Bill Welch, Dick Small, Norm Poulin and the rest of the board for getting tables and tickets for their respective businesses (or individually).
 - And for the staff, to Sherri and her gang, for preparing the Club for Steak & Burger, in the midst of getting ready for the summer program – and for Sherri’s fine comments about the three special members, and to Joyce for that outstanding power point presentation that ran all evening.
 - Many thanks also to Peggy Bell and Karen Sudbay for a lot of the behind-the-scenes organizational work, program production, follow ups, etc that often goes unnoticed when it goes so well

You’re probably wondering what the event has raised. As of this afternoon, I reported to Jim that it appears after expenses (under $100), our current net figure is $8,900! So, Jim was right in the ballpark when he referenced $9,000 last night – and who knows, if we get another donation or two, that might bring us in over $9K.

Congratulations to all of you!
Bob

Dear Ken:

Thank you for attending the recent gubernatorial candidates' breakfast forum hosted by the Governmental Relations Group at Pierce Atwood. We were very pleased to have you and so many other business leaders as our guests, and we hope that the forum contributed to your understanding of the candidates competing for the Republican nomination.

Now that the Primary is behind us, we look forward to a lively and interesting general election campaign. This is an important election year, and members of the Governmental Relations Group are playing active roles in various campaigns. We are planning additional political briefings this fall, and we hope that you will be able to join us again.

In the meantime, please feel free to contact me or any member of our Governmental Relations team if we can provide you with any advice or assistance on legislative, regulatory or political matters. For more information about the Governmental Relations Group and our other practice areas, please visit us anytime at www.pierceatwood.com.

Very truly yours,

Christopher E. Howard

Thank you for your kind note. We are always looking for new ways to better serve our viewers, and we appreciate your feedback.

I believe Jeff Peterson is the anchor whose name you were looking for. He no longer works for WMTW-TV. Jon Camp has joined Tory Ryden, Tom Chisholm, and Norm Karkos at the anchor desk at 6 p.m. and 11 p.m. I appreciate your positive feedback on Jon Camp, Gray Stabley, and the rest of the team.

Regarding Tracy Sabol's pronunciation of Iraq: you bring up a good point, and we will address that issue. Input from viewers like you is how we are going to continue "Building A Station Where The News Comes First."

MESSAGE:

Okay, I'm having a very senior moment here, so please help. For the life of me I cannot remember the male anchor with Tory. I note there is a new anchor, John Camp (excellent). Is the other fellow on vacation, or has he gone off to other things? All your TV anchors, reporters, etc. are great; we watch only Ch. 8 for the news! I especially enjoy watching Gray Stabley do the weather, she is very credible (and classy). Just one criticism - it drives me crazy to hear Tracy Sabol pronounce Iraq with the emphasis on "I"; perhaps this is an alternate pronunciation, but it seems as those most newscasters pronounce it not as "I"raq. Thanks. I'll be looking forward to the answer as to who the previous male anchor was and where he went.

MESSAGE:

I watch WMTW everyday as much as it's on. Everyone there does a great job. I really like the weather report. I think its much better than the Weather Channel and now that I have WMTW weather on my computer I won't miss anything. Your website is great. Nice job!
